A FARMER'S SUICIDE.

He Hangs Himself While Laboring Under Mental Aberration.

IN PROSPEROUS CIRCUMSTANCES

And no Cause can be Assigned for his Act but his Mental Malady—His Friends had Long Watched him Vigilantly—He Leaves a Wife and Large Family.

Yesterday intelligence reached the city of a sad suicide in the vicinity of Sardis, down the river, on Thursday. George Fox, a prosperous farmer, well off in this world's goods, and with the happiest domestic relations, was found dead, hanging by the neck in a room of his house. He had for some time been suffering from a mild form of mental aberration, and seemed to become worse. His family felt very uneasy about his condition, and kept a close watch on him. Thursday morning, however, while the members of the family were absent from the house engaged in duties about the premises, he secured a rope and hanged himself. He was found not very long after, but life was already extinct. He leaves a wife and a large family of children, who are heartbroken over his tragic end.

The unfortunate man's brother, John Fox, was in Wheeling yesterday making arrangements for the burial.

Colored Prisoners for the Pen.

Sheriff Gore and Deputy Chambers, of Logan county, were in the city last night, having brought two colored prisoners to the penitentiary. One got one year for burglary, and the other five years for a shooting scrape.

Sheriff Franzheim also took down yesterday John Wilson for five years, for burglary, and W. W. Banks, for two years, for grand larceny. This is Banks' second term. He was only discharged the 24th of last October.

Warden Van Pelt yesterday received a telegram stating that Anderson Martin, of Wayne county, a convict serving a ten-year sentence, had been pardoned by the governor owing to failing health. He is suffering with hemorrhage of the lungs and will not live long. He was received on February 10 last year, and will leave to-day for his home.

The Casino Park Opening.

At a meeting last night of the Elks' committee on the Park Casino opening, it was definitely decided that the dates should be June 7 and 8. On those nights Roland Reed's company will play "Lend me your Wife" and "A Woman Hater." Mr. Reed will keep his company together after his season closes especially for this engagement. In addition to the comedies, there will be a grand brass band concert and a fine fireworks display in the park. The price will only be 75 cents, including the round trip to the park, admission at the gates and a seat in the theatre, which may be reserved without extra charge. This will no doubt be the greatest amusement event the Ohio Valley ever saw.

"Peanut Scott" Dead.

Joshua Scott Couch, better known all over this part of the country as "Peanut Scott," died yesterday at his home in East Wheeling after a pretty long illness. He came to Wheeling about the close of the war from Old Virginia, where he had been a slave. He was for awhile a servant in the Haynes family, but he won his peculiar fame as a peddler of peanuts, candy and fruit, in which capacity he visited all the fairs and other big gatherings in the vicinity. His figure and his peculiar voice were familiar everywhere.

Last Night's Entertainment.

The Opera House was well filled again last night with enthusiastically appreciative auditors, the occasion being the second rendition of the union entertainment of the A. O. U. W. lodges of the city. The programme was the same as the night before, except that Rt. Rev. Bishop Donahue made the opening address, instead of Rev. Dr. Swope. The bishop's talk was brief, but genial and eloquent, and was much appreciated.

The Bridge Company's Appeal.

Messrs. Hearne, Sommerville and Russell, who went to Point Pleasant to argue before Judge English the application of the Wheeling & Belmont Bridge Company for an appeal from the decision of the circuit court in the ferry injunction case, came home yesterday afternoon. When the argument was concluded Judge English took the case under advisement.

Lecture on Reading.

Last evening at the Methodist church in Benwood, Rev. Dr. F. D. T. Dickley, of Thomson M. E. church, this city, addressed a large audience on "Masterpieces of Authorship." The talk was well received by those present. The doctor made some pertinent remarks about the character of the books to be selected for perusal.

Two Octogenarians Dead.

Wilson E. Norman died Thursday night at his residence on Nineteenth street at the ripe age of eighty-four years.

Mrs. Margaret Youngblut died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, August Sauer, in the Fifth ward, aged eighty-one.

A Hole in His Head.

While on one of his old-time drunks yesterday Matt Dailey fell, striking his head on a sharp stone and cutting a bad hole. He was lying on Twelfth street east of Chapline last night, when the police were notified, and Officer Rohrlf hauled him down in the patrol wagon.

INSOMNIA is fearfully on the increase. The rush and excitement of modern life so tax the nervous system that multitudes of people are deprived of good and sufficient sleep, with ruinous consequences to the nerves. Remember, Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong.

INSPECTING THE ROAD.

A Party of Ohio River Railroad Men in Wheeling.

Last evening a special train of the Ohio River railroad brought to the city a distinguished party of officials and stockholders of the Ohio River Railroad Company, who had spent the day in an inspection of the line from Parkersburg to Wheeling. Among those in the party were Mr. J. L. Caldwell, president of the First National bank, of Huntington; Mr. C. W. Smith, of Chicago, and General Manager G. Clinton Gardner, of Parkersburg.

The party leaves for the lower end of the road this morning.

To Young People.

On Sunday evening at Thomson M. E. church, on the Island, Rev. Dr. F. D. T. Dickley, the pastor, will preach a special sermon to young people on "The Secret of Life." The various young people's clubs have been invited and many will attend. The prologue, a feature recently introduced by the doctor, will be "The Power of the Press." No doubt there will be even a larger than usual congregation present. The morning sermon is on "A Divine Resident."
